BEGINNING many years ago,
You know, each Wednesday night,
The preachers held an hour of prayer
To lead us to the light.
And 'mong the early praying men,
Who did their duty true,
Were Father Rudy, John C. Reed,
And brother Davis too.
The honored custom still we keep
As swift the years roll by
And for their memories it speaks
Far more than marble high.

ANOTHER visitor to the city was last night initiated by the boys into the mysteries of "snipe hunting."

THE old grave yard back of the Washington Opera House, is being cleaned up under the direction of Thomas Farley.

MR. MACE WILLIAMS began on Tuesday the repairs and improvement of Mr. Charles White's business house on Second street, adjoining Vickroy & Lee's clothing store. It is to have a handsome iron front.

THE moonlight fete by the Aberdeen Reed and Cornet Band will be repeated Thursday evening, the 17th inst. The ferryboat will make a trip at 8 p. m., free of charge for the benefit of all who may wish to go from this city.

THE ladies of the Helping Circle, of Aberdeen, will give a church social on Friday evening at Mrs. Mary McDaniel's residence on Front street. Ice cream and cake will be provided and there will be good music. Everybody is invited.

THE wild bull that dropped in to see Myall & Riley on Monday also called to pay its respects to the Mayor. His Honor did not exactly deliver the keys of the city to his visitor, but as he went out the window, he left them where the bull could conveniently get them.

NOTE the advertisement of the meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association. Lexington Kentucky October 10, 11, 12 and 13. The colt stakes are full and will be well contested and the purse trots close September 1st. Make your entries for the different classes to close September 1st, to B. G. Bruce Secretary Lexington, Kentucky.

Miss Julia Thompson, of Dayton, O., after spending a few weeks with relatives here, left to visit the interior of the State. She was accompanied by Misses Lizzie Thompson and Jennie Kirk.

Our friend J. C. Kackley made quite a successful race for police judge. Toward evening seeing that the vote for him would be almost unanimous, he "plumed his feathers" and started for Indianapolis. And if our judgment is correct, we presume he drifted a little farther northwest. But as he is now endowed with judicial power, the less we say the better.

MILLWOOD.

Mrs. Harvey Rice and son, Willie, visited relatives in Owensville last week.

Mrs. Judd and daughters, Misses Jessie and May, of Maysville, are the pleasant guests of Mrs. Dr. Dougherty.

Misses Annie and Eva Hord spent a week at camp meeting.

Miss Nannie Rice is attending Sharpsburg fair.

Mrs. Ella Hord left Saturday for Fox Springs.

Mrs. Davis and Miss Fannie Walton returned home last week after a pleasant visit to Miss Mattie Cord, to the sorrow of a friend, Charley C. W.

Miss Florence Adams and Miss O'Bannon were the guests of S. G. Hord last week.

Miss Fannie Hanley, of Crain Town, spent Sunday with Mrs. Dougherty.

WASHINGTON.

The old court house is being repaired preparatory to opening school the 1st of September.

Uncle Peter Anderson and wife, of Dover, have been on a visit to the family of C. L. Anderson.

Miss Emma Goggin has gone to Escalapa Springs.

Miss Belle McCray and Miss Furgeson, of Mo., are visiting the family of Mr. Need Parry.

Miss Toup, of Maysville, is having a pleasant visit to the family of Silas Fristoe.

Rev. M. M. Riley preached to a good congregation Sunday in the Baptist church, preaching also the 2nd Sunday in September.

Dr. Kay Adamson sat up with the family of Dr. Alex Hunter Sunday night.

HEATHCOTE.

GAS POINT.

No meeting last Sunday—the first Sabbath for a long time.

The first of the series in Cincinnati of summer night concerts under the direction of Theodore Thomas was successfully inaugurated at the Highland House, Monday evening.

News from Peru states the war is becoming one of extermination. The excesses of the Chilian troops in the interior have excited the populace, who are rising against the troops.

A farmer named Frederick Kline, living near Foster's Crossing, Ohio, has discovered that $800, which he had hid for safety in an old barrel, in his wood shed, is missing.

A captain in the Egyptian army, supposed to be the bearer of dispatches to Arabi Pasha, was captured at Suez. A number of Arabic documents, supposed to be important, were found on him.

DIED.

In this city, Monday, August 14th, 1882, Mrs. Wm. Creasy.

OBITUARY.

Miss Allie McIlvaine, daughter of John and Rebecca McIlvaine, died near Plano, Texas, August 8, 1882, after a long and painful illness of nearly one year. She had suffered with consumption, and was born in Mason County, Ky., October 2nd, 1854. She was undisputedly at the approach of death, whose coming had long been anticipated. Four years ago her parents moved to Texas. She leaves many friends who mourn her death and sympathize with her family in their sad bereavement. But we mourn not as those who have no hope, for she was a devoted christian. A FRIEND.
Plano, Texas.
